TASCO[®] SNAPSHOT COMBINES SPOTTING SCOPE WITH DIGITAL CAMERA

Overland Park, KS —The new Snap Shot from Tasco was designed with birders and outdoor enthusiasts in mind. The Snapshot is a two-piece combo that includes a 10x50mm spotting scope with a compact 2.1 MP digital camera. It offers 3-in-1 convenience and versatility as the spotting scope and camera can be used separately or combined to capture digital images as viewed through the spotting scope.

The combo package includes the adapter for mounting the camera to the spotting scope. It also comes with a tabletop tripod and hard case. It is covered by a Lifetime Limited Warranty. The new Snap Shot retails for $144.95 and will be available in April 2006 at Tasco dealers nationwide. For more information, visit the Tasco Web site at <http://www.tasco.com>.
